JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Ivan Johnson, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 24, and 47 of the First Superseding Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 35 months. This term consists of 35 months on each of Counts 24 and 47 of the First Superseding Indictment, to be served concurrently, and 35 months on Count 1, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years. This term consists of three years on Counts 1, and one year on each of Counts 24 and 47 of the First Superseding Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

- (1) The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
- (2) During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
- (3) The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;

- (4) The defendant shall not possess the W-2 forms or federal 1099 of others, nor shall he possess any partially completed or fully completed income tax returns of others.
- (5) The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving bookkeeping or income tax filing assistance without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
- (6) All computers, electronic communications or data storage devices or media to which the defendant has access in his residence or work place, shall be subject to search and seizure and the installation of search and/or monitoring software and/or hardware, including unannounced seizure for the purpose of search. The defendant shall not add, remove, upgrade, update, reinstall, repair, or otherwise modify the computers, electronic communications or data storage devices or media, nor shall he hide or encrypt files or data, without prior approval of the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall provide all billing records, including but not limited to telephone, cable, internet, and satellite as requested by the Probation Officer; and
- (7) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, in the amount of $19,034,901. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid to the Internal Revenue Service.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $2,100 per month, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $2,100 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendants Matthew Carl Berry, Karen Denise Berry, Valerie Dixon and Carla Denise Berry for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be designated to a penal institution in Southern California

The defendant is advised of his right to file an appeal within 10 days of entry of judgment.

In the interest of justice, any underlying and/or remaining counts are dismissed.
